

W. J. BRYAN URGES SENATORS TO COMPROMISE ON TREATY

At a Bi-Partisan "Round Table" Conference of Senate Leaders, Which Was Participated in by Four Republicans and Five Democrats, Including Republican Leader Lodge and Administration Leader Hitchcock—Senator Lodge Characterizes It as "the First Practical Step" in the Compromise Negotiations.

Washington, Jan. 15.—At a bi-partisan "round table" conference of senate leaders late today formal negotiations toward a compromise on reservations to the peace treaty were inaugurated. While no agreement was reached at the meeting, which was participated in by four republicans and five democrats prominent in recent informal negotiations and which lasted two hours, another meeting will be held Saturday.

The conference in which Republican Leader Lodge and Senator Hitchcock, administration leader, were leaders, followed the unsuccessful attempt of democratic senators at a party caucus to elect a leader to succeed the late Senator Martin of Virginia. After two attempts to break the tie vote of 19 to 19 on Senator Hitchcock and Senator Underwood of Alabama, the two candidates, the caucus adjourned subject to the joint call of the two senators. Another caucus is planned after Carter Glass, senator-elect from Virginia, an Underwood supporter, takes his seat but the result still remains in doubt because of the position of Senator Smith of Georgia, who, without his vote today.

William Jennings Bryan conferred with several republicans as well as democrats, urging an immediate compromise, ratification of the treaty. He also advocated his plan of withdrawal of democratic participation in voting on the treaty, compromise negotiations should fail.

The conference between the democratic and republican leaders was characterized by Senator Lodge as "the first practical step" in the compromise negotiations. In addition to Senators Lodge and Hitchcock, the conference were Senators New of Indiana, Lehman of Wisconsin and Kellogg of Minnesota, republicans, and Senators McKellar of Tennessee, Simmons of North Carolina, Walsh of Montana, and Owen of Oklahoma, democrats. Both delegations were well informed by the news of the day without specific authority to act for their respective sides.

The Lodge reservations were the basis of discussion at the conference.

TWO MEN DEAD AT FIRE IN NEW HAVEN

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 15.—Two men are dead, a dozen men and women are in hospitals suffering from the effects of smoke and a score of others have minor injuries as a result of a fire which broke out in the Commercial Building this afternoon. Fully one hundred men and women were rescued from the three upper floors of the eleven story structure.

The property loss will aggregate $150,000, falling mostly upon M. Steinert Sons, piano dealers, and J. R. Rembert Company, stationers, who had stored their goods in the building. The fire broke out in the basement and spread to the first floor, where it was extinguished by firemen who were engaged in mopping up the blaze in the basement long after the fire was under control. The Steinerts had pianos, phonographs and packing cases, and Rembert Company a stock of stationery in the fire. The fire was caused by a gas leak from a stove in the basement.

Ask Extradition of Former Kaiser

Supreme Council Has Drafted a Note to the Dutch Government.

Paris, Jan. 15.—(By The A. P.) The supreme council has drafted a note to the Dutch government, asking for the extradition of the former German emperor. It will probably be sent on Saturday.

The note refers to Article 227 of the treaty of Versailles and invites Holland to join the allied powers in the accomplishment of this act.

Article 227 of the treaty of peace with Germany declares:

"The allied and associated powers publicly arraign William II, of Hohenzollern, formerly German emperor, for a supreme offence against international morality and the sanctity of treaties."

"A special tribunal will be constituted to try the accused, thereby assuring him the guarantees essential to the right of defense. It will be composed of five judges, one appointed by each of the following powers: namely, the United States of America, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan."

The article also declares that it will be the duty of the tribunal to fix the punishment which it considers should be imposed.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Controversy over awards of war service decorations by the war department was widened today when Secretary Baker made public a letter to Representative Gallivan, democrat, Massachusetts, challenging statements made by him a few days ago by the latter in the house regarding former chiefs of staff, while Gallivan amplified his previous charges in a written statement.

Mr. Baker's letter dealt with the military records of war service of General Tasker H. Bliss and Major General Hugh L. Scott and John Biddle, predecessors of General Peyton C. March in the office of the chief of staff. The secretary denied emphatically Gallivan's statement that these officers had been removed from duty because of inefficiency and said he made the letter public as the only means of the officers' assailed had of answering such charges.

Representative Gallivan in his statement declared only one enlisted man, "apparently by error," had been awarded a distinguished service medal while 554 officers and 33 civilians had been given this honor. He said that figures as to awards made, adding that he did not desire to anticipate or befuddle the distinguished secretary of war in preparing the report called for under the Gallivan resolution adopted by the house.

"Let it not be forgotten," said Mr. Gallivan's statement, "that the secretary of war is the one who is responsible for the distribution of the medals and decorations of the American army which was for enlisted men only."

"I do not care to comment upon the figures which I append. It certainly is illuminating and it is proof conclusive that the medal is given to a much narrower field than even I announced in my remarks in congress."

The figures quoted showed the following distribution of medals: 2, 1st Lieutenants; 2, 2nd Lieutenants; 2, 3rd Lieutenants; 2, 4th Lieutenants; 2, 5th Lieutenants; 2, 6th Lieutenants; 2, 7th Lieutenants;
